Name: Klann
First Name: Esther
Address: Kirchstraße 1
Letter
E-Mail: EstherKlann@web.de
Date of birth: 19.5.1991

General:

My name is Esther and I'm a seventeen year old girl from Hannover in Germany. I visit the 12th grade so I will finish school in less than two years and I'm really looking forward to it ;)

Family:

I've got two siblings, who are both younger than me. My little brother is only eight years old, my sister is already 14, but they are both going to be one year older in November. My father works as a minister at church. We've got a lot of pets: two cats, a guinea-pig, geckoes, tortoises, hamsters, mice and a small dog, which nobody really likes, except for my mother and it's the same with the dog vice versa (it doesn't like us too, but we don't remember anymore, who started the fight)

Hobbies:

In my free time I get politically involved. I've been a member of the social democratic party for almost one and a half years now and I'm a member in smaller gremmies of the party and the party's youth organisation which is called "Jusos".

Another thing I like to do, if I find the time, is studying Russian on my own. I bought myself a small language course book with a CD and now I try to learn the language at home, since our school doesn't offer Russian as a subject. I hope I'll succeed.

Sometimes I meet with friends to play a pen-and-paper role game called "Vampire".

Music:

I listen to a lot of music, but I wouldn't call it a hobby. At the Moment I love the Songs "Nights at The Circus" and "Magus" from Bishi. I only listen to friendly, non-aggressive music. I think music has got a great influence on my temper. When I was younger, I used to listen to loud and aggressive music, when I was angry, but it always just kept me in my state of anger. That's why I stopped listening to those tunes at all and changed to Songs that express the happiness or sometimes also the melancholy I want to feel.

About me:

It's important to me to be well-informed about political and social issues because you can't change the world, if you don't know what's going on ;)

I really like making new, positive experiences and I'm very interested in different countries or even cultures. It's my dream to become an Interpreter and I can't wait to finish school to be able to learn exciting new languages professionally at university and not with a self-learning book at home anymore.
